Full Initiation: To be fully initiated into the Catholic Church means you have received the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.

Good Standing: To say one is in good standing in the Catholic Church means you believe and profess all that the holy Catholic Church believes, teaches and proclaims to be revealed by God and sincerely try to live the Gospel message in your communal and individual lives. If you are married, you were married in the Church or the marriage was blessed by a priest. (Divorce does not make one ineligible to serve as an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion). You participate in the Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation.
