Antiphon I

Cantor: He is my comfort and my refuge. In him I put my trust.

Psalm 144

I

All: Blessed be the Lord, my rock,
who trains my arms for battle, //
who prepares my hands for war.

He is my love, my fortress;
he is my stronghold, my savior
my shield, my place of refuge.
he brings peoples un-der my rule.

Lord, what is man that you care for him,
mortal man, that you keep him in mind;
man, who is mere-ly a breath,
whose life fades like a shadow ?

Lower your heavens and come down;
touch the mountains; // wreath them in smoke.
Flash your lightnings; rout the foe,
shoot your arrows and put them to flight.

Reach down from hea-ven and save me;
draw me out from the migh-ty waters, //
from the hands of a-li-en foes
whose mouths are filled with lies,
whose hands are raised in perjury.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Ho-ly Spirit.
as it was in the beginning, //
is now and will be for ev-er. Amen.

All:

He is my com-fort and my re-fuge In him I Put my trust.

Antiphon II

Cantor: Blessed are the people whose God is the Lord.

II

2-4 lines

5-6 lines

Omit for 5 lines

All: To you, O God, will I sing a new song;
I will play on the ten-stringed harp
to you who give kings their victory,
who set David our servant free.

You set him free from the evil sword;
you rescued him from a-li-en foes
whose mouths were filled with lies,
whose hands were raised in per-ju-ry.

Let our sons then flour-ish like saplings
grown tall and strong from their youth:
our daughters grace-ful as columns,
adorned as though for a palace.

Let our barns be filled to o-ver-flowing
with crops of ev'-ry kind;
our sheep increas-ing by thousands, //
myriads of sheep in our fields,
our cattle hea-vy with young,

no ruined wall, no exile,
no sound of weeping in our streets.
Happy the people with such blessings;
happy the people whose God is the Lord.

A musical staff with two staves. The top staff is labeled "2-4 lines". It consists of two horizontal lines with a vertical stem in the middle. The bottom staff is also labeled "2-4 lines" and has a similar structure. Below the staff, the lyrics "Bless - ed are the peo - ple whose God is the Lord." are written in a cursive font.

Antiphon III

Cantor: Now the victorious reign of our God has begun.

Canticle

Revelation 11:17-18; 12:10b-12a

A musical staff with two staves. The top staff is labeled "2-4 lines" and the bottom staff is labeled "5-6 lines". Both staves have a similar structure with two horizontal lines and a vertical stem in the middle. A bracket below the staves is labeled "Omit for 5 lines".

All: We praise you, the Lord God Almighty,
who is and who was.
You have assumed your great power,
you have be-gun your reign.

The nations have raged in anger,
but then came your day of wrath //
and the moment to judge the dead:
the time to reward your ser-vants the prophets
and the holy ones who re-vere you,
the great and the small alike.

Now have salvation and pow-er come,
the reign of our God
and the authority of his A-noint-ed One.
For the accuser of our brothers is cast out,
who night and day accused them be-fore God.

They defeated him by the blood of the Lamb
and by the word of their testimony;
love for life did not deter them from death.
So re-joice, you heavens, //
and you that dwell therein!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Ho-ly Spirit.
as it was in the be-gin-ning, //
is now and will be for ev-er. Amen.

All:

Now the vic - tor - ious reign of our God has be - gun.

The musical notation consists of a single staff in G major with a common time signature. It features quarter notes and eighth notes. The lyrics are placed below the staff, aligned with the notes.

READING

James 4:7-8, 10

Submit to God; resist the devil and he will take flight. Draw close to God, and he will draw close to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; purify your hearts, you backsliders. Be humbled in the sight of the Lord and he will raise you on high.
