LICENSE TO USE CREATIVE CONTENT

The Diocese of Gaylord (“Diocese”) has conducted a contest entitled 2024 Diocese of Gaylord Art Contest (“Contest”) where students have an opportunity to create new artwork. The undersigned student (“Student”) has submitted artwork to the Contest.

1. Student confirms that their submission (“Submission”) is original to them and not copied from others and grants the Diocese the right to use the Submission for its nonprofit purposes. Without limitation, the right to reproduce copies, adapt, combine with other content, distribute copies, perform, display and transmit copies of the Submission. This license is nonexclusive, worldwide, for all media now known or later developed, royalty-free, paid up, irrevocable, in perpetuity, and sublicensable to Diocese collaborators (such as printers and publishers).
2. Student waives any requirement of attribution and any moral rights (as applicable).
3. Diocese agrees that Student retains ownership of copyright in their Submission. Diocese agrees to use reasonable efforts to identify Student as the author of the Submission.
4. This “License to Use Creative Content” (“Agreement”) is the sole understanding of the parties with respect to the Submission. It may be amended only by a writing signed by the parties. All required communications shall be in writing and addressed to the receiving party and to the person who signed the Agreement on behalf of such party. All communications are deemed given when hand-delivered; or if mailed, by registered mail with verification of receipt, upon date of mailing; or if by electronic mail or other electronic communications, when received. It may be signed electronically and in counterparts. The parties consent to electronic communications and electronic documents.
